Winter Double Issue 2016

Dear Friends,

Monty Python was a British comedy troupe renowned for their quirky skits and unique way of seeing and pointing out humor in the world. In the late 1960's and early 1970's they produced a popular sketch comedy show aired by the BBC called Monty Python's Flying Circus. I never really go into it when it they started airing in the States in the early 1980's, but my brother did. The one enduring memory I have of the show is it's beginning montage. The show would start with a goofy animation drawn by one of the cast members with a brief voiceover announcing, "And now for something completely different." And with that the show would launch into a variety of sketches.

"And now for something completely different", I don't know about you but these words are resonating with me this week. For a while now our nation has been wrapped up in a political season that for my money has been way too divisive and polarizing. This past Election Day, one candidate lost and another won but my Facebook Feed has been filled with continued divisiveness and polarization. No one party is responsible for it. It has come and is coming from all sides of the political divide, though to describe it as a divide may be understating things a bit. The weight of it though leaves me longing for something completely different. I long for a season when we seek to understand one another even in our differences. I long for a season when we seek to see the good in one another even in the midst of our differences. I long for a season when we will endeavor to love one another in spite of our difference.

Friends, God is good; God is good all the time. We find ourselves on the brink of just such a season, for Advent has come. In Advent, we hear the Prophets cry out to a worn out and broken Israel saying God is doing something new. In Advent, we hear God speak his promise of redemption. In Advent, we hear about the hungry being filled with good things and a light that shines into the darkness. We need to be filled with good things. We need God's light to shine showing us the way of love that promises renewal and redemption for all of creation.

Friends, God is good; God is good all the time. Advent is here and with it a promise that not only can things be completely different, but we can be completely different.

I encourage you to join us throughout the season of Advent. Together we will share in the light and love of a Savior who came to make all things new.

Glory to God in the highest and on earth, peace and good will to all.

Rev. Jonathan W. Bunker, Pastor

Blessing by Jan L. Richardson

From all that is broken,
let there be beauty.
From what is torn, jagged,
ripped, frayed,
let there be
not just mendings
but mendings unimagined.
May the God in whom nothing is wasted
gather up every scrap,
every shred, and shard,
and make of them
new paths,
doorways,
worlds.

Recently someone asked me, "When was the last time you read something that really changed your life?" While contemplating my answer, my thoughts kept returning to the PW/Horizons Bible Study written by Judy Yates Siker that our Women's Circle prayerfully engages in every month.

Each of the study's nine lessons explores the question, "Who is Jesus?" as seen through a different theological lens beginning with the Gospels of Mark, Matthew, Luke, and John; books of Paul (Acts), Hebrews, and expanding into Judaism and Islam. Then finally concluding with contemporary cultural interpretations.

Throughout the lessons we are encouraged to read and listen with "fresh, new eyes and ears." We always begin by sharing prayers and lighting the Christ Candle. Different participants each month share an insightful story or poem as well as lead the Least Coin Collection. Miraculously, every month the readings fit perfectly into our day's lesson as though programmed ahead of time!

We warmly invite anyone to join us on this journey to expand your understanding of Jesus. Your book awaits you! The best part is to see how your faith and friendships will grow!

SUNDAY SCHOOL NEWS

We are all gearing up for the excitement of Advent! Preparations for our annual Christmas pageant are underway and the plans are very exciting. If you'd like to be part of the excitement, all you have to do is let us know. There is a job or role for all. This year's pageant, "The Christmas Story" is being written and staged by Betsy Arnett, so we are guaranteed a wonderful event. If you'd like more information about this year's pageant, just call the church office for details.

BOOK CLUB

The BPC book club meets the 3rd Wednesday evening of the month at a group member's home. The group generally picks a book that has piqued the interest of one or more of the group's members. So if you'd like to be encouraged and motivated to read more, consider joining us. This month we met at the home of Cathy Dickey on Wednesday, November 16th and discussed "The Last Lecture" by Randy Pausch. All agreed it was a touching and refreshing story. Our next book is "The Aviator's Wife" by Melanie Benjamin. All you need to do is secure a copy and start reading! Our next meeting will be Wednesday, January 18th. For more information call Cathy Dickey at 539-2056.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The knitting group is alive and well!

Currently we meet on the second Thursday of the month. If you would like to attend please just come, all are welcome no matter which craft you like or would like to learn.

Angel

Angel, which means "messenger" in both Hebrew and Greek, is a spirit-being God created to perform tasks for him. In the Bible, angels appear in human form (always as men) to deliver divine messages. Angels appear separately to Joseph and Mary, announcing Jesus' upcoming birth, and "a multitude of the heavenly host" (Luke 2:13) tells shepherds of the Savior's arrival. Scripture offers little information about angels, though we know some rebelled against God. Among the holy angels, categories include cherubim and seraphim.

Christmas Mixer

For the third year we are planning an adults only Christmas party/mixer to be held on December 9th from 7-10 p.m. This year it will be held at the home of Lynn and Randy Tuohig. Bring an appetizer to share as well as a wrapped "white elephant" gift for a gift swap. It's sure to be a fun evening so don't miss it. The Tuohig's address can be found in the most recent directory or call the church office for details.

The graphic shows a small Christmas tree, wrapped gifts, a bowl of appetizers, and a blue and white patterned banner.

Christmas Day Service

Sunday,
December 25th

December 2016

The angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!" ~Luke 2:10-14
